Pro Archia Vocabulary (Sections 1-7) ingenium, -i, natural talent; character iudex, iudicis m. juror exiguus, -a, -um, scanty, small, slight infirmitior, infitari, intitius sum, to deny versor, -ari, -atus sum, to be engaged in curio, -onis f. methodology; system disciplina, -ae, training, teaching profiscor, -i, -fectus sum, to set forth confiteor, -eri, -fessus sum, to confess aetas, aetatis f. age abhorreo, -ere, -ui, to be adverse to fructus, -us m. profit, benefit, reward repto, -ere, -petivi, -petitum, to seek in return; trace, search for propre adv. almost, nearly ius, iuris n. law; right quoad, as far as mens, mentis f. mind respicio, -ere, -specxi, -spectum, to look back on spatium, -i, space, time, length praeteritus, -a, -um, past, former pueritia, -ae, boyhood recordor, -ari, -atus sum, to recall princeps, principis m. leader, chief succipio, -ere, -cepi, -ceptum, to undertake ingredior, -i, -gressus sum, to begin, embark exsto, -stare, -stiti, to stand out, emerge, exist hortatus, -us, encouragement praeeptum, -i, instruction, precept conformo (1) to shape, mold, train aliquando adv. at some time, from time to time salus, salutis f. health, safety, salvation accipio, -ere, -cepi, ceptum, to receive opitutor, -ari, -atus sum, to receive help to profecto adv. certainly ops, opis f. aid, assistance fero, ferre, tuli, latus, to bring, carry; bear, endure forte adv. by chance miror, mirari, miratus sum, to wonder facultas, -atis f. ability, skill quidem adv. indeed, certainly ne . . . quidem, not even penitus adv. deeply, completely umquam adv. ever dedo, -ere, -didi, -ditum, to devote, surrender etem conj. for; and indeed humanitas, -atis f. culture vinculum, -i, bond, chain quasi adv. as it were, as if mirus, -a, -um, marvelous, strange quaestio, -onis f. investigation; trial iudicium, -i, trial lectus, -a, -um, excellent, special severus, -a, -um, strict, old-fashioned conventus, -us, assembly, gathering frequentia, -ae, crowd, large attendance utor, uti, usus sum + abl. to use genus, -eris n. type, style consuetudo, -inis f. customary manner sermo, -onis m. conversation; speaking venia, -ae, indulgence, favor accommodo (1) to suit, accomodate reus, -i, defendant, accused quamadmodum, as spero (1) to hope moletus, -a, -um, troublesome, annoying eruditus, -a, -um, learned, scholarly concursus, -us, crowd, gathering litteratus, -a, -um, well-read, cultured denique adv. at least, finally patior, pati, passus sum, to suffer; allow loquor, loqui, locutus sum, to speak propter + acc. on account of otium, -i, leisure tracto (1) to handle, deal with tribuo, -ere, -ui, to grant, bestow concedo, -ere, -cessi, -cessum, to concede perficio, -ere, -feci, -fectum, to complete, achieve; bring about excedo, -ere, -cessi, -cessum, to go out inforrn (1) to mold, shape soleo, -ere, solitus sum, to be accustomed nascor, nasci, natus sum, to be born coeipi, coepisse, coeptus, to have begun cunctus, -a, -um, entire, all adventus, -us, arrival supero (1) to surpass, excel tum adv. then, at that time (in the past) plenus, -a, -um, full of colo, -ere, colui, cultus, to till; cultivate, foster; worship hic adv. here, in this place neglego, -ere, -lectum, to neglect itaque adv. and so, accordingly civitas, -atis f. city; state; citizenship ceterus, -a, -um, the remaining, rest praemium, -i, reward, prize dono (1) to award, bestow iudico (1) to judge cognitio, -ionis f. recognition dignus, -a, -um + abl. worthy of notus, -a, -um, well-known, noted nanciscor, -i, nactus sum, to obtain geru, -ere, gessi, gestum, to carry on, perform, do; wear (clothes); wage (war) auris, auris f. ear statim adv. immediately recipio, -ere, -cepi, -ceptum, to take back, accept; admit lumen, luminis n. light; brilliance virtus, -utis f. character, manliness faveo, -ere, favi, faetus + dat. to show favor, give support senectus, -utis f. old age iucundus, -a, -um, pleasant, agreeable vivo, -ere, vixi, victum, to live vincio, -ere, vinxi, vinctus, to bind adicio, -ere, -feci, -fectus, to effect, bring about; be treated (pass.) honos, -oris m. political office; respect, esteem, glory percipio, -ere, -cepi, -ceptus, to perceive studeo, -ere, -ui, to devote oneself, be eager simulo (1) to pretend, assume interim adv. meanwhile satis adv. enough sufficiently proficisor, -i, -fectus sum, to set out decedo, -ere, -cessi, -cessus, to go away aequus, -a, -um, fair, just, reasonable foedus, -eris n. treaty volo, velle, volui, to wish gratia, -ae, favor, influence impetro (1) to obtain (by request) lex, legis f. law foederatus, -a, -um, bound by treaty sexagenta, 60 profiteor, -eri, -fessus sum, to profess, state openly, declare familiaris, -e, intimate, closely associated